

India's Civilized Past

It is the only society in the world which has never known slavery.

India never invaded any country in her last 10,000 years of history.

India was the richest country on Earth until the time of the British in the early 17th Century

Robert Clive's personal wealth amassed from the blunder of Bengal during 1750's was estimated at around £,401,102

It has been estimated that the total amount of treasure that the British looted from India had already reached £1,000,000,000 (£1Billion) by 1901.

Taking into consideration interest rates and inflation this would be worth close to $1,000,000,000,000 ($1Trillion) in real-terms today. Please click to advance >

Similarities to Biblical mythology

The ancient Vedic Aryan Hindus (Indus Saraswati) spoke about a series of Ten Pitris who ruled before the global Flood.

Ancient Babylonian legend speaks of a pre-Flood series of ten kings.

The ancient Egyptians described Ten Shining Ones who ruled consecutively before the Deluge.

The last of these kings in the aforementioned lists was the hero who led seven others aboard a vessel in which they survived the global Flood.

In ancient India, the hero was Manu who survived the global-Flood "pralaya" with the Seven Rishis.

In ancient Babylon, the hero's name was Zisudra who spear-headed the survival on the Ark of seven other humans, the Seven Apkallu.

In ancient Egypt, the Flood hero was Toth who survived the Deluge along with the Seven Sages.

Did the Vedic Aryans travel as far as Easter Island?

The Easter Islands located in the Pacific Ocean, were situated far away from any civilization.

The craftsmanship of these islands corresponds to the one of the ancient Incas.

The sign script of the Easter Islands almost equals the ancient scripts of Indus Valley.

The words of Lord Krishna in the Bhagavad Gita.

Lord Krsna counsels Prince Arjuna during the Great Mahabharata War, in Kurukshetra, India, circa 3100 B.C.,

"After many births the wise seek refuge in me, seeing me everywhere and in everything. Such great souls are very rare."

"Your very nature will drive you to fight, the only choice is what to fight against."

"On action alone be your interest, Never on its fruits.

Let not the fruits of action be your motive, Nor be thy attachment to inaction. "

"This is how actions were done by the ancient seekers of freedom; follow their example: act, surrendering the fruits of action."

"For certain is death for the born, and certain is birth for the dead; Therefore over the inevitable you should not grieve."

"For the uncontrolled there is no wisdom. For the uncontrolled there is no concentration, and for him without concentration, there is no peace. And for the unpeaceful how can there ever be happiness?"

"When a man dwells on the objects of sense, he creates an attraction for them; attraction develops into desire, and desire breeds anger."

The 4 kinetic ideas behind Hindu Vedic Spirituality Karma Maya Nirvana Yoga

The law of universal causality, which connects man with the cosmos and condemns him to transmigrate.

simply what it seems to the human senses. Absolute reality, situated somewhere beyond the cosmic illusion woven by Maya and beyond human experience as conditioned by Karma.

The world is not

The state of absolute blessedness, characterized by release from the cycle of reincarnations; freedom from the pain and care of the external world; bliss.

Implies integration; bringing all the faculties of the psyche under the control of the self
